

The Ag*Quest loan program is here!

We are excited to offer this program to our small and family farmers. Barns, utility tractors, implement and trucks are a few of the many items we can finance with Ag*Quest. Our friendly loan officers are ready to assist you with several flexible terms and competitive interest rates. So when you are considering your next purchase think of Ag*Quest for your family farm needs.

Quest Annual Meeting on March 12, 2011 at the Hardin County Armory.

The night began with a wonderful dinner served by the Plaza Inn. President Dick Wilcox reviewed our 2010 financial report and a summary of 2010 which included our brand change and building a new office in Ada.

This year's guest speaker was Charles Whitaker who discussed information relating to protecting your assets and family farms. Jim Range, Board Member and Nominating Committee Chair reported that Jeff Beach, Ron Rogers and Allen Barrett will all return to the Board of Directors as well as David Sturgeon continuing on the Credit Committee, all for 3 year terms.

CEO Matthew Jennings spoke about our projections for 2011 and provided detail about upcoming products and services. Jennings also presented awards to the 2010 Quest Leadership Graduates who include Mallory Miller, Jessica Minter, Tobi Collins and Terry Minter. The 2011 leadership participants will be Jolene Baliey and Tracy Hollinger. Service awards were presented to the following Board and Staff; John "Pete" Gunn - 30 years, Dick Wilcox - 15 years, Sarah Wirbel - 5 years, Jennifer Nelson - 15 years, Shannon Allmon, Kim Beach and Beth Delong - 10 years. The evening concluded with door prizes.

Quest Service Award Winners 2011.

If your money talked, what would it say about you?

The Ohio Credit Union Foundation (OCUF) is inviting Ohio credit union members pursuing an undergraduate degree to apply for a $5,000 scholarship by creating a 60-second to 2 ½ minute video advertisement answering this question. Entrants must be a member of an Ohio-based credit union and submissions should spotlight one or more of the following money management techniques: thrift/savings, savvy spending, and wise credit usage. Video entries can be edgy, funny, bold, simple, serious – or anything in between. The 2011 Video Scholarship contest will begin Monday, March 14 and end Friday, May 20. All video entries must be submitted by Friday, May 20 at 11:59:59 p.m. EST. Video finalists, selected by a judging panel at OCUF, will appear on the OCUF website and the scholarship winner will be announced June 10. Whether you have always been a savvy spender or you have experienced a few financials bumps along the way, OCUF would like to hear what your money has to say about you. To learn more about this scholarship opportunity please visit www.OhioCreditUnionFoundation.org.
